It is easy to "crisp" lettuce if one but knows how, and the difference is great in appearance and taste. Hold the head of lettuce by the root and dip it into a deep pan nearly full of very cold water; dip several times; then shake well and dry as directed; pick off the large outer leaves, discarding all not perfect and leaving the heart intact; fold in a soft, light towel very loosely and set in the ice-box until needed. and set in the ice-box until needed.

Stale and wilted lettuce should no more be eaten than cold soup. To dress a lettuce sailed certain ingredients and certain conditions are absolutely essential to have it good.

A dressing that can be prepared beforehand and poured over the lettuce immediately upon serving is made as follows: Mash the wards," replied Miss Bondclipper. upon serving is made as follows: Mash the yolk of a well-bolled egg-by well bolled I mean one that has been bolled ten to fifteen minutes, thrown into cold water and shelled

She went through her part that night as usual-acted it splendidly-brought down the house; then, after the performance, she sent for Clark to come to her room. Clark knocked and then opened the door. She brought forwar to him his wife and baby who had been waiting in the dressing-room to eceive him. Such a reception! Charlotte Cushman never looked or acted o grandly on the stage in all her life as she did that night in her dressing-room, says the Philadelphia Times. She waved Clark away with greater majesty than ever as Queen Catherine, she waved away Cardinal Wolsey and then, going to her hotel, probably she had a good crying spell But she never loved
